

Big Brothers Big Sisters

Showing Appreciation

Objective:

This activity will let you and your Little reflect on someone special to each of you, someone you appreciate, and someone you admire. This is an opportunity for you to teach about one person that has influenced your life and learn about someone in your Little's life.

What you'll need:

- Paper and markers

Instructions:

1. Make a list of the five people who you and your Little care about most (each of you should make a list)
2. Talk to each other briefly about these people
3. Each select one person from your lists who you appreciate the most at the moment
4. Write a card to this person and illustrate it, include five reasons on the card for selecting this person!
5. Talk to your Little again about why they chose the person they did!
