STATEMENT FROM OUR CEO

2018 was both a challenging and exciting year. From an organizational and national perspective, we rebranded ourselves and placed an even greater emphasis on the urgency of mentoring. We know we are one of the most human brands on the planet. When we talk about making a change in the world, we aren’t talking about sending down platitudes from up high. We aren’t talking about tweets and likes. We’re talking about rolling up our sleeves and being present for the next generation. We’re talking about seeing their potential and standing with them to defend it instead of just wishing them luck and walking away. And we know there are others like us. People who care to do more. Give more. Protect more.

In Philadelphia, gun violence and poor academic performance threaten the continued growth and prosperity of our city, and the prosperity of young people. We are proud to share that our local youth, who often face enormous challenges in life, are given access and opportunity through our programs which allow them and their families to break generational cycles of poverty. I believe that each and every individual who interacts with our organization has the responsibility and power to act as a defender potential. We’re talking about Bigs, Littles, guardians, staff, donors, volunteers and supporters.

As we look ahead, you will see us standing up for social justice, taking an active role in uncomfortable conversations that impact our communities, and investing in meaningful interactions with young people to help them ignite and harness their own potential — the potential that they have had all along. To all of you who have joined us in this critical mission, Thank You.
Community-Based (CB) mentoring allows mentors (Bigs) and mentees (Littles) to spend time in the community doing fun and interactive activities together, working toward personal achievement and positive character building. To participate in the Community-Based program, Bigs commit to an average of 2-4 hours, 2-4 times per month.

BBBS Independence operates under the belief that inherent in every child is unlimited potential. We identify youth who need or want a mentor through collaborations with schools and community organizations. BBBS Independence creates safe, high quality, long-lasting mentoring relationships that help vulnerable youth reach their full potential by placing caring adult mentors in their lives. Each mentoring relationship is professionally supported by our experienced staff, with road maps for success developed in concert with parents, children, and mentors. Our mentoring programs are designed for multiple settings in our local communities, schools, and workplaces.

CB Mentoring Hours are based on the minimum commitment of 4 hours/month and matches active in May 2018.
Sometimes the best place for a mentoring match to enjoy activities together is at the Little’s school, such as Russell Byers Charter School in Philadelphia, or in the Big’s workplace. School-Based mentoring focuses on personal success and academic achievement through weekly mentoring sessions where Bigs can enjoy activities such as helping their Littles with homework, sharing conversation, setting goals, and/or bonding over lunch. We are proud to offer several types of school-based mentoring programs including Beyond School Walls, Mentor 2.0, College Bigs, and LGBTQ.

Beyond School Walls is an innovative one-to-one youth mentoring program designed for organizations seeking to help their local community while improving employee engagement. It is unique in that students from a local school meet with their mentors at their workplace. Students are exposed to a positive work environment – something many have never experienced before!

Mentor 2.0

Mentor 2.0 is a School-Based mentoring program partnered with Parkway Center City High School and Philadelphia Community College, where high school students are mentored by college-educated Bigs for 4 years. The four year special admissions high school serves a student body of youth with economic disadvantages but a commitment to help them navigate a path to college. Bigs and Littles follow a specific curriculum which includes topics such as goal setting, self-advocacy, applying and paying for college, and transitioning from high school to college – areas cited as being integral to succeeding in college. They also utilize an online technology platform to communicate weekly and meet once a month at the Little’s school. The program was launched in Philadelphia in 2018, following strong evidence-based results from affiliated programs across the country.

LGBTQ YOUTH MENTORING

LGBTQ youth are at higher risk in a number of areas that impede healthy and safe development. Launched in 2018, the BBBS Independence LGBTQ Gender & Sexuality Alliance program partners with local schools to support our LGBTQ youth by recruiting safe, responsible, and compassionate LGBTQ Volunteers to be group mentors to high school Gender and Sexuality Alliances (GSAs) – a safe space for queer and questioning youth. Volunteers attend regular after-school meetings for 12 months and work to help their mentees achieve their goals and realize their full potential.

MENTOR INDEPENDENCE REGION

As an affiliated organization of BBBS Independence, MENTOR Independence Region was launched in 2015 to expand the mentoring field’s regional capacity to reach more youth, and to pair them with caring, committed adult mentors. The organization works directly with mentoring programs and mentors to help them become aware of the research and evidence-based practices that have been shown to increase the likelihood of positive outcomes for youth. Locally, BBBS Independence serves nearly 3,200 children annually. However more than 250,000 children remain in need in the seven county service area. BBBS Independence and MENTOR Independence Region recognize that collaboration and cooperation with the more than 300 mentoring programs serving youth in the region is critical to ensuring all youth have access to high quality mentors and high quality mentoring programs.
